

I do not support the deregulation of broadband internet companies. I like supporting my local internet service provider and do not wish to be forced to use one of the huge isp companies. It is important to me to support local business and I am extremely happy with the service that I currently receive.